Role: Womens Officer (Academic year 2020/21)

Opportunity:

- To be responsible for supporting and campaigning to improve the welfare of women students at NUA.
- To ensure that the voices and concerns of this minority group are heard on campus.

Role Description:

- Be an advocate for and voice of women students at NUA.
- Ensure that NUA Students' Union effectively represents women students, and that the Students' Union is aware of the needs and issues of these students.
- Run appropriate campaigns, events and projects specific to women students on campus, with resources and support from NUA Students' Union.
- Liaise with the Students' Union President on a regular basis about current issues and ongoing/future campaigns, projects and events specific to women students.
- Attend Students' Union Steering Committee meetings (which meet once per term) and represent the needs and opinions of women students.
- Through campaigns and events, raise awareness with the hope to effect change amongst the University community of issues affecting women students.
- Liaise with any relevant clubs & societies regarding liberation activities and campaigns.

Training and Support:

All liberation officers will be invited to a training session at the start of the 2020/21 academic year, as well as benefit from ongoing support from SU staff throughout the year.

Any student who identifies as female, non-binary and gender neutral can apply for this position.